

Minister Ed Doherty Tours Provincial Research Organization

Minister Ed Doherty recently toured the facilities of RPC, New Brunswick's provincial research organization. During the visit, Minister Doherty had the opportunity to learn how RPC works with 900 small and medium sized enterprises annually. RPC helps business with their science and engineering needs by providing technical services and conducting applied research. RPC provides essential services for New Brunswick's environmental, energy, aquaculture, mining and food and beverage industries.

Photo Right: Minister Doherty discusses activities in RPC's life science lab with Dr. Rachael Ritchie, Department Head.

